

We Want To Buy Your Retired Chromebooks

ITsavvy's device buyback service enables schools to generate revenue from used devices they no longer need. Our streamlined service helps K-12 School Districts generate funds that can go back into the technology department's budget. ChromeCare clients can use ITsavvy's buyback payout as a credit towards purchasing new devices from ITsavvy. Or, for ChromeCare coverage in the future. Our team of experienced professionals will assist in capturing residual value for your end-of-life devices.

We buy retired:

Chromebooks

Notebooks

iPads

Let's Get Started

To receive an offer determination on your equipment within 72 business hours, please fill out the device buyback questionnaire here: ITsavvy.com/buyback

Should you choose to move forward with ITsavvy's Buyback Service, our team will provide shipping instructions and material for packaging. We will cover all shipping and packing material expenses. ITsavvy will also coordinate onsite pickup of your equipment within 3 driving hours of Milwaukee, WI. After we receive, inspect, inventory, and validate the devices, the proceeds will be disbursed to your school district.

“The buyback process was easy and painless. From the initial conversations, through figuring out the financial details and ending with the devices being picked up from the district, the process was smoother than anticipated. ITsavvy provided consistent communication throughout the entire process. Our district devices were at the end of lease terms. ITsavvy worked directly with our leasing partner to buyout the current lease. Saving our district significant amount of money, time and energy.”

Chris Vipond, Director of Technology
Grayslake CCSD 46 (IL)

“We've continued to use ITsavvy for the buyback of retired devices in the District. ITsavvy makes the process easy. With the great communication, great service and efficiency to collect our retired Chromebooks, I would greatly recommend utilizing this program. We used the funds to put towards the purchase of our next fleet.”

Patricia Graziano, District Technology Manager
School District of Greenfield (WI)
